Straight From My Heart

As I ponder over the year 2020, I have constantly heard from God that this new year is one that the Saints will need to activate the Shepherd – Sheep relationship to guarantee a seamless and uninterrupted access to the benefits that the Great Shepherd has to offer and also to be shielded from all that will take place around the world in 2020.

One key ingredient of the Shepherd – Sheep relationship is that of complete and total trust.

You must settle it in your mind and heart that God has it all in control and will bring you to His perfect and expected end.

Whatever you do this year and wherever you go this year, always remember that God is your Good Shepherd and you are the sheep of His pasture.

There is a pasture that is prepared for you and you only need to rely on Jesus – the Author and finisher of your faith to lead you to that pasture.

Put your trust in Him, follow His leading, hearken to His commands. Do what He says to do, go where He says to go.

Let Him make you lie down in green pastures, let Him lead you beside still and quiet waters.

“The Lord is my Shepherd [to feed, to guide and to shield me], I shall not want. He lets me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still and quiet waters. He refreshes and restores my soul (life); He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.”
(Psalm 23: 1-3)

This ‘Shepherd – Sheep’ relationship takes the responsibility of worrying about your sustenance and protection from you and places it squarely on the shoulders of Jesus; when you activate this relationship and its benefits, divine guidance becomes a concluded fact, divine protection and sustenance becomes a given, all these and much more guaranteed by God’s own name

Beloved you are released from your struggles as you hook up to the Great Shepherd – Jesus Christ.

Welcome to your season of refreshing...
In the end you win!

Michael

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD!

Lots of questions go through the minds of believers, ranging from why is it that I don't appear to be fruitful? Why is it that the law of multiplication is not in effect in my life? Is it God's will for me to remain this way and not live out the promises in His word?

God has used agricultural metaphors to describe the relationship between divinity and humanity. In some occasions, He has described this relationship between the saints and the Godhead as the relationship between the sheep and the shepherd.

Psalm 100 and verse 3 says, "Know and fully recognize with gratitude that the Lord Himself is God; It is He who has made us, not we ourselves [and we are His]. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.", again Psalm 95 and verse 7 says, "For He is our God. And we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand."

The verses above imply the existence of a pasture prepared beforehand by God for the sheep. Paul put it this way in Ephesians 2:10, "For we are His workmanship [His own master work, a work of art], created in Christ Jesus [reborn from above—spiritually transformed, renewed, ready to be used] for good works, which God prepared [for us] beforehand [taking paths which He set], so that we would walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us]." Your unique pasture has always been there waiting for you!!

When the shepherd takes the sheep out of their fold to go eat, he already knows where to find some luscious grass suitable for the sheep. The Shepherd knows to take the sheep to a pasture devoid of thorns.

Now if men know enough to take care of their sheep in this manner, then how much more will our heavenly father take care of us, His sheep?

God has 'a pasture' for everyone who trusts in Him. 'A pasture' represents 'that place' that has been earmarked by God for you to be the place of your flourishing and divine providence. The pasture represents a 'there' for you. A 'there' or a 'pasture' is a place of supernatural provision; when you get in that place, God will provide for you and cause you to multiply and flourish.

In the place of God's pasture, your provision can and will come from diverse and unexpected sources.

God will even use dirty birds like He did with the Ravens for Elijah (And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he would drink from the brook. – 1 Kings 17:6). All you need to do is to get in the right place and God will use surprising methods to bless and multiply what you have in your hands.

The reason why you have not experienced multiplications and fruitfulness on the level that God has planned for you may be because you have left the place of 'His pasture' or perhaps like the lost sheep, you have left 'the place' that God has prepared for you and instead wandered off on your own, leaving behind the good shepherd who knows the end from the beginning.

The prodigal son had 'that place' where there was provision for all he needed. He had 'the pasture' where all he needed was in abundance. (Luke 15:17), as long as he remained there all his needs were taken care of.

Lack and want always results when you move away from God's pastures. Take a look at Jeremiah 23 and verse 3 "Then I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the countries to which I have driven them and bring them back to their folds and pastures; and they will be fruitful and multiply."

Clearly, staying in the fold and pasture as prepared by your heavenly Father guarantees fruitfulness and multiplication.

You need to get back into the fold and pastures that God has prepared for you. You do this by aligning your plans with God's plans. You do this by having a keen ear that hears and understands God's whispers. You do this by coming back to your senses like the prodigal son did.

Your pasture might be a geographical location, it might be an activity or vocation, it might be shrouded in the veil of your associations or acquaintances or relationships. It might as well be a combination of the above and much more. Whichever it is, you must do all you can to discover 'that place'. Doing that will provoke and activate the limitless provisions of God to work for you.

Scripture has also referred to this location as the 'broad place': "He brought me out into a broad place; He rescued me because He was pleased with me and delighted in me." (Psalm 18:19), also; "Then indeed, He enticed you from the mouth of distress and confinement, into a broad place where there is no constraint or distress; And that which was set on your table was full of fatness (rich food)." (Job 36:16).

How then can we ensure that we are always in His pasture? Let's take a look at Psalm 66. "You made men (charioteers) ride over our heads [in defeat]; We went through fire and through water, Yet You brought us out into a [broad] place of abundance [to be refreshed]". (Psalms 66:12)

"Come and hear, all who fear God [and worship Him with awe-inspired reverence and obedience], And I will tell what He has done for me. I cried aloud to Him; He was highly praised with my tongue. If I regard sin and baseness in my heart [that is, if I know it is there and do nothing about it], The Lord will not hear [me]; But certainly God has heard [me]; He has given heed to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer Nor His lovingkindness from me". (Psalms 66: 16 – 20).

By Michael Eleanya

THREE KEY THINGS STAND OUT:

Repentance, Prayer and Praise

Just like the prodigal son, you must return to your senses and make your way back to God in repentance. This repentance must not be borne out of a desire for the pastures, but must be genuine, borne out of the desire to make peace with God and the desire to dwell in the same space with Him, for the sheep are always in the presence of the Shepherd. In addition to repentance, you must become a pray(er) – one who is always in constant communion and communication with God, it is in the place of prayer that your spiritual senses are sharpened to hear clearly when the good Shepherd whispers into your ear telling you that you have arrived at the pasture. If you must locate and dwell in God's pastures for you then you must never neglect the place of prayer.

On the wings of prayer is your praise, it is via the weapon of praise that we come into His presence in the first instance, a heart of praise and worship to God guarantees your stay in the pastures of God, you may get to the pastures by prayer, but it is praise that will keep you there. Learn to be thankful for the work of salvation and all the benefits that come with it and you will have secured your place in His pastures.

We are in a season where we must understand that God is our Shepherd and we must do all that is required to dwell securely in the pastures that He has prepared from the beginning of time for us. May God grant you the wisdom to dwell securely in His pastures!! 🙏

IS GOD REALLY Your Source?

Use This 6-Point Checklist to Find Out If You're Relying on God to Meet All Your Needs

Years ago, the Lord gave a powerful word to Kenneth Copeland that has changed his life and the lives of KCM Partners around the world:

Don't look to the government for your supply.

Don't look to other people for your supply.

Pastors don't look to your congregation for your supply.

Jesus is our Source, and The WORD is our supply.

Why is this truth so important? Because as long as we rely on natural sources, our faith in God is not in operation, which blocks Him from showering us with abundant blessings. Today and every day, God wants to meet all your needs.

"My God supplies all of my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (see Philippians 4:19). Get that established in your heart. If you don't, you could receive money everyday, borrowed or not, and still stay in poverty and lack.

You may love God and think you believe Him to meet your needs, but is God really your Source? Use this 6-point checklist to find out if you're relying on God to meet all your needs.

☑ God Is Your Source When He Isn't Your Plan B

*"Seek FIRST the kingdom."
—Matthew 6:33 (NKJV)

Pop quiz. What do you do when you want to buy a house or a car, or an unexpected expense comes knocking at your door?

If your first thought was a natural source (loans, credit cards or people), you answered incorrectly. This doesn't mean you shouldn't have a job or never take out a loan—but it does mean that your first thought should go straight to God—your Source.

Most of us want to believe God is our Source, but when it comes down to it, our actions speak louder than words. We've been trained by the world to make natural options our source—even to rely on them exclusively. Some have fallen for the trap. They make God their Plan B, choosing instead to rely on things like:

- Credit card debt
- Loans
- Government assistance
- Parental support
- A job or employer
- Social Security or Medicare
- Donors or congregations

Then, when natural means fail, they fall to their knees and cry out to God for help, when all along, they had access to the best plan of all. A big enemy of making God your Source? Impatience. God takes too long to answer. I'll have to wait forever to get a house. I can't afford to pay cash for a car. Do these thoughts sound familiar?

There's good news for you today: God wants you to have everything you need—and even the desires of your heart. But you have to do it His way. This means investing all your confidence in Him first—not just when things turn ugly.

Anything that bumps God out of first position is a code-red situation. It would be like relying on a blow-up raft with a hole in it when you've been invited to board a yacht sailing right next to you.

Let's get one thing straight. Your job, the government, your family, your savings account, your retirement account or your credit cards—those things can fail. God will never fail, so don't make Him your Plan B!

☑ God Is Your Source When You Believe

*"Have faith in God." —Mark 11:22

Now, it's time to take God off Plan B status and move Him to Plan A, or No. 1, where He belongs. God is your Source when you believe He is your Source. That means showing a poverty mentality the door. It means you must stop wondering if He really wants to bless you, and it certainly requires pushing the mute button on the "what ifs" in your vocabulary.

When you learn to make God your Source—to really know and believe in your spirit that He will provide everything you need—your life will move from stress to peace, lack to abundance, and confusion to certainty. In other words, have faith in God, and your life will be forever changed.

Is it really that simple? Yes. Yes, it is.

Believing is the key to ending the daily struggle—that feeling that you just can't get in front of everything life throws at you. It's moving from opinions to revelation.

Abraham caught the revelation. He knew and believed so strongly that God was his Source, that he took his son Isaac to sacrifice to the Lord. Abraham believed God would provide. When Abraham "lifted up his eyes and looked" (Genesis 22:13, ESV), there was a lamb in the thicket. He looked into the realm of the supernatural because he knew that is where his provision would come from.

That's the key. You've got to lift your eyes up to Him instead of looking down at your bills or your circumstances.

Say, "God is my Source." Keep saying it and keep meditating on the Word. Let the revelation come alive in your heart until you believe that He is your one and only Source of supply.

☑ God Is Your Source When You Understand THE BLESSING

“The blessing of the Lord makes one rich.” – Proverbs 10:22 (NKJV)

Part of renewing your mind to believe that God is your Source is understanding THE BLESSING of the Lord.

Here are what you could call the CliffsNotes on THE BLESSING: God made a covenant with Abraham, empowering him and his descendants with THE BLESSING—the ability to prosper and excel in everything. Finally, “through Christ Jesus, God has blessed the Gentiles with the same blessing he promised to Abraham” (Galatians 3:14) because “if you are Christ’s, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise” (Galatians 3:29, NKJV).

When you became a Christian, you became an heir to the greatest inheritance ever known. Understanding THE BLESSING of Abraham is what brings the revelation that God is your one and only Source.

THE BLESSING of the Lord was established by God to enforce all your covenant rights and to advance you along in life, but sometimes it can be tempting to flip over to the natural and try to take the reins yourself. The unintended consequence ends up including delay and frustration.

God put THE BLESSING in place, so we don’t have to toil, struggle or rely on man in any area of our lives. The world is unpredictable, at best, but THE BLESSING will provide for you even when natural circumstances are against you. It will take you from a dry place to a place of abundant rain—from shaky ground to a solid foundation. But you have to let THE BLESSING do the work.

☑ God Is Your Source When You Obey His Word

“No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.” –Psalm 84:11 (AMP)

When you really believe God is your Source, you are going to obey everything He tells you to do. You won’t question it. You won’t try to get out of it. You’ll be standing at your post, responding with a hearty, “Yes, Sir!” at every command because you’ll know His aim is your well-being and provision.

In what areas should you obey Him? All of them! Every single command you see in the Bible is a chance to be obedient. These include, but are not limited to: Loving others according to 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

- Forgiving everyone
- Tithing and giving
- Refusing to fear
- Refusing to worry
- Honoring Others
- Staying sexually pure.

Obedience is an act of worship and trust. It tells God you honor Him above all others, including your own fleshly desires. It puts Him first place in your life. Even more, it tells Him you see Him as your one and only Source for peace, joy, happiness, healing and provision.

When you know God is your Source, you’ll want to follow Him—no matter the cost. You’ll know that as long as you’re with Him, you’ll have everything you need. But if you wander off the path, you’ve lost your guarantee. That’s a dangerous place to be.

Second Chronicles 16:9 says, “For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is perfect toward him” (KJ21). “To show himself strong” translated in Hebrew means “to bestow, grant, or extend wealth.”

The Lord is searching out the earth for people to bless. He wants to extend wealth, but we have to be receivers. We have to be trustworthy. It’s dangerous for someone who isn’t obedient to God to have wealth. That’s why He’s looking for a receiver.

A receiver has to be in position to receive. How do you get in position? Obedience.

“If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land” (Isaiah 1:19, ESV).

☑ God Is Your Source When You Tithe

“Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops.” –Proverbs 3:9 (NIV)

Obedience includes honoring God with the tithe. It’s amazing how many Christians will debate and resist this principle. Yet, it is only to their own detriment. Honoring the Lord with the tithe is putting action to your confession that God is your Source.

Heaven has always had a good economy. When God can trust you to give tithes and offerings, you won’t lack any provision. On honoring God with your finances, Gloria Copeland says, “Think of the return people get off of tithing—giving God the top 10% of their increase. Talk about a reward.”

☑ God Is Your Source When You Reach Out and Take What You Need by Faith

“How long will you neglect to go and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers has given you?” –Joshua 18:3 (NKJV)

As we’ve learned so far, it’s critical to get a revelation of God as your Source to receive from Him. But if you’re sitting in your recliner waiting for God to drop money in your lap, you’re in for a long wait.

Faith isn’t passive—it’s an aggressive force. Faith takes what it’s believing for. That means, when you have a need, you’ve got to take action. Gloria Copeland suggests asking yourself, “When I prayed, did I take it, or did I just talk about it?”

Possession is key in the Bible. Israel had to take possession of the land God promised them. He gave it to them, it belonged to them, but they had to take possession to receive the land.

It’s the same when it comes to provision. Jesus paid a high price to give you everything included in THE BLESSING. Now, you need to go possess it.

You’ll know God is really your Source when you reach out and take what you need by faith. Claim it. Lay hold of it. Don’t let it slip away. Gloria Copeland says, “If you get serious, God will get serious.”

Kenneth Hagin once offered a three-step plan for reaching out and taking the finances you need:

1. Claim what you need. Decide what it is you need in the natural realm; then believe you receive when you pray.
2. Say, “Satan, take your hands off my money.”
3. Say, “Go, ministering spirits, and cause the money to come.”

Faith is targeted and succinct in the way it operates.

Everything you need is ready and waiting for you. How long will you wait to go and possess the land?

Is God really your Source? In looking at this 6-point checklist, how’d you do? If there are a few points that need work, don’t be discouraged—get to work! Renew your mind until you believe, obey and reach out in faith. God is THE Source of anything and everything you could ever want or need. You can count on it! L

It was quite strange to hear about their defeat. After conquering very strong nations and humiliating their kings and military commanders. Now, a few lucky survivors returned beaten and chased by little Ai. What a terrible day it was for General Joshua. He thought, "If we can be this beaten by little Ai, what will happen when we face bigger and stronger nations?"

Like a good Christian today would do, Joshua went into fasting and prayer. He cried to God and poured out His heart before God: "Why did you let this happen to us? You promised you'll be with us in every battle. See how we have been humiliated by this little nation of Ai. Why Lord!" he prayed. God's response was simple: "I am not the cause of your failure. You lost because you didn't follow my laid-out strategy and instruction. Your team member stole and sabotaged the plan you were given for the battle."

This is typical of the believer's experience today. When things go wrong, we cry, we pray, and sometimes we even blame God. After which we move on hoping that it won't happen again. We often don't bother to find out why things went wrong. The fact remains that until the cause of failure is determined and corrected, success cannot be attained. God is never the cause of evil or failure. God is always for his people and never against them. However, He never takes up their responsibility. That is to say: God won't do for you what He has already empowered you to do for yourself.

Joshua didn't just pray and walk away, he prayed until he got a word from the Lord on how to win the battles that were ahead of him. Prayer is good, but any prayer that leaves all the responsibility to God is an irresponsible prayer. Prayer should be a dialogue, not a monologue. The potency of your prayer is not measured by the number of words you spoke, but by what God spoke to you while you prayed. Most times answers to prayer often come as instructions, ideas or new strategies.

In this case, as recorded in the eighth chapter of the book of Joshua, God sent Joshua back to the same battle he lost, but with a different strategy. He asked him to divide his army into two camps: one should ambush the city of Ai while the other will lure them out of the city by pretending to be running from the battle. Once the men were out of the city for the chase, the men on ambush would take the city and set it on fire. After setting the city ablaze both the soldiers that ambushed the city and the ones running from Ai should turn on the enemies and kill them from every side while they were still in confusion.

By this simple strategy, Israel won the battle they once lost.

Friends, victory or success in life is a function of strategy not energy. Just a little application of wisdom can turn that failing venture to a success.

Hear what the Bible says:

Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength. For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety. (Prov.24:3-5)

Here's the point: material success or victories comes by having proper understanding of how things work and applying such knowledge rightly. This is called wisdom. Permit me to say that success is not a prayer point, but a wisdom point. It takes wisdom to build anything worthwhile. Someone once said to me, "Pastor, I win souls, I pray very hard, but my business never progresses. Please pray for me". He was surprised at my response, for I said bluntly, "sorry, I won't pray". Then I gave my reason, "You already said you're a prayer warrior. If your prayers have not changed the situation it is obvious that it is not a prayer problem but a wisdom problem." It is good to pray, however try coming out of your closet with a word of wisdom to change your situation. Sometimes, a little thinking, a little planning, a little idea or a little new strategy can cause a mighty turn-around in your life. The man that thinks ahead will always get ahead of others. You need wisdom to always win in life.

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore, get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." (Proverbs 4:7)

The Spirit of a Sound Mind

In case you don't know how to get winning ideas and strategies ask the Holy Spirit. God gave us the Holy Spirit, so he can teach and show us all these. (see 1 John 2:20, 27)

The Holy Spirit is not in the believer just for speaking in other tongues, but for power. He gives us supernatural ability to solve problems and succeed in life. Apostle Paul summarized it thus: For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. (2 Timothy 1:7)

The Holy Spirit gives us three major weapons for all round victory:

- 1. Power
- 2. Love
- 3. A sound mind

Most times we fail more in recognizing and deploying the third – a sound mind. It takes a sound mind to live a sound life. Being spiritual is very good, but until your spirituality affects your mentality you cannot experience prosperity. It's time you put your Holy Ghost empowered mind to work and begin to win the battles of life. Welcome to the winning side.

WINNING LIFE'S BATTLES

Nigeria, let the Righteous Arise

Righteous Prayer Points of Action

".... Father, may your glory be seen in our nation, may righteousness arise and permeate the very fabrics of our national existence. Let the dew of the morning in our nation come with it a manifestation of the power of God that breaks yokes and sets nations free. We ask for mercy in Jesus Name."

".... Father remove leaders and men of authority that you did not set up. Give our nation selfless leaders, men and women of wisdom and understanding; leaders who will not cause your people to err."

".... Father Lord teach us the way of peace in our goings as a nation, make our crooked paths straight so that we may know peace. Lord, we pray that your thoughts and plans for us as a nation, for peace and welfare, may be established on earth."

".... Father, raise more laborers of the gospel within our nation, may the good news we deliver enrich the poor in spirit, heal the brokenhearted, deliver the captives, bring recovery of sight to the blind and set at liberty them that are bruised."

Stand up and be counted!

"I LOOKED FOR SOMEONE AMONG THEM WHO WOULD BUILD UP THE WALL AND STAND BEFORE ME IN THE GAP ON BEHALF OF THE LAND, SO I WOULD NOT HAVE TO DESTROY IT, BUT I FOUND NO ONE."
(EZEKIEL 22:30 NIV)

Ponder upon the words of Ezekiel in the verse above; we are called to stand in the gap on behalf of our nation, we are to be the ones who will lift up our nation before the throne of God's mercy asking and petitioning Him to move in an unprecedented way in our midst.

From what we see around us, it will take a clear divine intervention for our nation to rise up and shine forth, it is our duty to make this happen, not just by prayer but by being that light in our sphere of influence.

WISDOM NUGGETS FOR OUTPOURING

The Lord is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. And He will be the security and stability of your times, A treasure of salvation, wisdom and knowledge; The fear of the Lord is your treasure.

(Isaiah 33: 5 - 6)

Prayerfully meditate on this scripture as you launch out into the new year, make it into a sticky note and place it in a conspicuous place, apply this scripture in all your endeavors this year and let it be at the forefront of your consciousness that God is the security and stability of your times and live with that confidence that God has got you covered.

2. Making the very most of your time [on earth, recognizing and taking advantage of each opportunity and using it with wisdom and diligence], because the days are [filled with] evil. (Ephesians 5:16). Are you taking advantage of the opportunities that God is bringing your way? Are you even prepared to take advantage of them when they come? For they will surely come. Write down those things you need to do to be prepared to benefit the most from what God is bringing your way.

Prayerfully ask God for the wisdom to be prepared for the blessings and opportunities that are coming your way.

3. May He grant you out of the riches of His glory, to be strengthened and spiritually energized with power through His Spirit in your inner self, [indwelling your innermost being and personality] (Ephesians 3:16). What are those things that has hindered you from having a personal encounter and relationship with the Holy Spirit? What are those things that you are struggling to let go of that has prevented you from reaping the benefits of having the Holy Spirit indwelling in you? It is the Holy Spirit that will teach and lead you into God's pastures for your life. List out those hindrances and take them one after the other to God in prayer and leave them at His feet.

Remember, what you do not confront you cannot conquer!!

From The Publisher

We touched briefly in previous editions of the clarity that God has provided in what He would have us do – delivering His gospel free of all cost to people all over the world and showing forth the unconditional love of Christ.

Through His grace and mercy, we have launched our Team ReachOut, with maiden reach outs to motherless babies' homes, taking beautiful kids off the streets by providing means to guarantee their education, partnering with other organizations in the area of improving access to proper hygiene for our female teenagers.

We are not resting yet, in the year 2020, God has given us His sure word, we will continue executing His command every month with ReachOuts to wherever He leads, in addition Living for Christ will expand these activities into the West African Sub Region starting from Ghana.

Additionally, we are believing God for the first ever Living for Christ Worship Conference.

We remain excited at the limitless opportunities available to spread the gospel of Christ and be that reflection of the love of Christ that the world sees – the type that provokes the world to Christ in genuine repentance. Do let us know if you are led to partner in this effort.
