

LIVING for CHRIST

SEPT-DEC 2020

THE RIVERS OF LIVING WATER

---

7
HABITS OF STRONG
CHRISTIANS

---

His
Still Small
Voice

---

CONTENTS

04

The Rivers of Living Water ...

(By Michael Eleanya)

Stop striving where you need to be thriving, stop laboring in the area that you need to be resting

06

The 7 Habits of Strong Christians

(By Kenneth Copeland)

When you establish the 7 habits of strong Christians in your life, it will keep you strong, protect you from the enemy, and catapult you to VICTORY

09

His Still Small Voice

(By Gloria Copeland)

As you become more aware of the Spirit of God in your everyday affairs, you'll be quicker to hear and obey those promptings

For your free subscription or enquiries call +234 (0) 8056893367 visit our Facebook page: Living For Christ or check out our website: www.livingforchristfoundation.org

SCAN QR CODE TO TAKE YOU DIRECTLY TO OUR WEBSITE

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US SPREAD THE GOSPEL! PASS IT ON!
SPREAD THE GOSPEL BY PASSING THIS MAGAZINE ON TO FAMILY, FRIENDS AND COLLEAGUES.

Straight From My Heart

A while ago, my little nieces and nephews were playing and apparently one of them did something that they felt was wrong and they all told her that they would report same to their Grandpa and they felt so sure that he was going to spank her.

When they told her that, she boldly replied them and said, "Grandpa will not spank me, he loves me so much, I'll go and tell him myself". Then she quickly ran to her Grandpa and told him what she had done and asked to be pardoned. Now her grandpa was just in the next room and had heard all of their discussions and instead of spanking her, he reaffirmed his love for his little granddaughter and forgave her.

This is the same way God views us and responds when the enemy brings up an accusation against us and we stand on the already procured forgiveness based on the awesome love of God for us.

Like my little niece, we need to recognize that God has already procured our salvation and once we ask him for forgiveness, He forgives and treats us like we never erred in the first instance. We need to recognize as well that if we are recipients of such a great love and mercy, then we need not be scared or fret over the difficult situations that we may find around us.

Beloved, God loves you with a love that you cannot fully comprehend. He is aware of your inadequacies and has fully paid the price on your behalf, moreover you have a High Priest making intercessions on your behalf in the presence of God.

Therefore, "What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?" (Romans 8:31-35)

Rejoice, for God has got you covered!!

Michael

THE RIVERS OF LIVING WATER

---

By: Michael Eleanya

“Then said he unto me, these waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. And it shall come to pass, that everything that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and everything shall live whither the river cometh. And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi even unto Eneglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.” Exodus 47: 8 – 12.

The scriptures above are the record from Ezekiel as God showed him of the rivers that flow from the Temple of God, the place where God chose to abide in.

From the revelation given to Ezekiel, the waters from the temple was such a life-giving force that whatever came in contact with the waters that flowed from the Temple received life and flourished.

The Temple of God contained the Ark of the Covenant, and it was the Ark of the Lord that Uzziah touched without permission and was slain (2 Samuel 6:6-7); likewise, when the ark of the Lord was sent to the house of Obed-Edom, the Bible records that the Lord blessed him and his entire household (2 Samuel 6:11). The same Ark slayed Uzziah, and the very same Ark blessed Obed-Edom. Uzziah represents the miry places and the marshes in the scripture above. The consequences are dire when you approach the Temple of God in disobedience.

Never despise a man who is effectively carrying the Temple of the most High God!

The result for the daughter of Saul when she despised and mocked David when he had returned from setting the Ark in the tabernacle was instant barrenness. The Temple of God is a sure defense for any man who will pay the price to house the Temple of God and even effectively become that Temple of God as we shall soon see.

In the old testament, the temple was a physical building where the saints went to worship. Let us however take a look at some scriptures concerning the temple in the new testament.

“Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” (1 Corinthians 3:16)

Also, “If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.” (1 Corinthians 3:16)

“What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?” (1 Corinthians 6:19)

“And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.” (Ephesians 2: 20 – 22)

Effectively, based on the salvation that Jesus procured for us we became the Temple of God. It is therefore from you that the river flows, the very same river that flowed from the Temple as seen by Ezekiel in his vision. Jesus again captured this revelation in John 7:38 when He said, “Whoever believes in me, as scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.”

This living water that we see in Ezekiel and then in John 7 is in effect the Holy Spirit (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified – John 7:39).

Now if we are to be the temple of the Lord, we must be even more glorious than the Temple of old which was but a shadow of the new and glorious temple. The book of Haggai confirms this: The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts – Haggai 2:9.

What then are the characteristics of the Temple of God that we might use as a yardstick to calibrate our lives and ensure that we become worthy vessels to carry such a glorious presence?

- * Holiness
- * Sanctified and set apart
- * Doing everything to please the owner of the Temple
- * Sacrifice is offered on the altar – our life must become a living sacrifice unto God
- * Prayer is offered always in the temple

Worship is offered in the temple (John 4:23-24)

In order to be supernaturally fruitful, in order for us to carry that living water that on its own is able to make everything in your life fruitful, we must intentionally activate the keys listed above.

In order to carry that living water that is able to on its own bring life and healing to every dead thing in your life, you must become that temple that God spoke of in Ezekiel 47.

When you become that temple, you effortlessly thrive in life and encounter multiplication wherever you go. When you become that temple, you no longer have need to defend yourself from the mockers, for God will Himself fight on your behalf.

This is the mystery of effortless abundance and multiplication.

This mystery and its benefits are only available to them that have given their lives to Christ.

Like the woman of Samaria, you need to cry out to God and say, “Give me this water, so that I may never thirst again.” This must be your heart cry every day. Many challenges we face have their solution in this.

One key thing among the keys above is prayer and worship. In order to become that temple, you must be given to intense prayer and worship. It is in the place of prayer and worship that you receive the grace to achieve the other keys.

You cannot be casual in the place of prayer and expect to carry such grace. You must develop a high level of intentionality concerning this, set out specific times that you will separate yourself from the crowd and offer prayer and worship to God.

Let us compare two scriptures:

“And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.”

(Ezekiel 47:12)

“Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” (Psalms 1:1-3)

Can you see the similarity between Ezekiel 47:12 and Psalms 1:3? Therefore, the verses that precede Psalms 1:3 gives us an insight into some characteristics of the saint who would be that temple and partake of the benefits as outlined in the preceding verse:

- * Walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly
- * Standeth not in the way of sinners
- * Sitteth not in the seat of the scornful
- * His delight is in the law of the Lord
- * Meditates in His law, day and night

Carrying this river of living waters requires intentionality on our part. Beloved, read this over and over again, take the keys highlighted here, intentionally implement them in your life and watch things turn around in your favor effortlessly.

Stop striving where you need to be thriving, stop laboring in the area that you need to be resting. God has finished the work for you through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and the release of the Holy Spirit, all you need to do is to present yourself to Jesus as a living sacrifice.

I pray for you today, may you receive the grace to do all it takes to be a worthy Temple of the Lord, may every hindrance to attaining this great feat be removed from your path, may God grant you the ability and strength to offer up on God’s altar all that needs to be given up for you to come into this newness of life and experience, in Jesus name. 🙏

A close-up photograph of a hand in a chainmail tunic holding a sword. The hand is positioned in the center-right of the frame, gripping the hilt of a sword. The sword is angled downwards and to the right. The background is a warm, golden-brown color, suggesting a medieval or historical setting. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the chainmail and the metallic sheen of the sword.

7 HABITS OF STRONG CHRISTIANS

By: Kenneth Copeland

When you establish the 7 habits of strong Christians in your life, it will keep you strong, protect you from the enemy, and catapult you to VICTORY.

The secret to your future is hidden. It's not hidden from you, though—it's hidden for you. You see, your future is up to you. Whatever you have and whatever happens in your life isn't an accident, or necessarily always God's will—it is in your hands more than you may know.

Where can you find this hidden secret? In your daily routine.

What you do on a daily basis will determine what you have in this life. If you're sowing to your flesh, the results will never be what you want. But if you sow to the spirit, you will become stronger and stronger (Galatians 6:8). You will get to a place where you confidently stand your ground, resist the enemy, and receive more from God—no matter what comes your way.

You have a decision to make. Is victory important to you?

Proverbs 8:34-35 says, "Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching DAILY at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whoever finds me finds life, and obtains favor from the Lord" (NKJV, emphasis added).

In other words, an anointed daily routine produces glorious results. If you want to put an end to being defeated or discouraged or going around the same mountain over and over—it's time to take your faith to a higher level. When you establish the 7 habits of strong Christians in your life, it will keep you strong, protect you from the enemy, and catapult you to VICTORY.

Habit No. 1: Strong Christians Feed Their Spirit

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God" –Matthew 4:4, NKJV.

This verse says we cannot live on just food for our body—we need food for our spirit, too. A strong Christian knows the reality and severity of the works of the devil and understands the importance of developing a strong spirit to resist him.

How do you feed your spirit?

By reading God's Word. Every. Day.

Strong Christians know one snack each week (church on Sunday) isn't enough to sustain us through the trials Jesus told us would come our way (John 16:33). We need daily hot meals to stand on top of every trial in a victory stance.

Gloria Copeland has always emphasized the importance of spending time in the Word on a daily basis. She says, you must "arrange your schedule around the Word instead of trying to make the Word fit into your busy life." That means the Word of God has to become a priority in your life—not something you do in your spare time.

Another way to look at it is the way Rick Renner does, which is, "No Word, no breakfast." Pastor Rick doesn't eat breakfast until he feeds his spirit with the Word of God every morning.

Habit No. 2: Strong Christians Build Their Faith

“David encouraged and strengthened himself in the Lord his God.”—1 Samuel 30:6, AMPC

Faith is your responsibility. It isn't God's, it isn't your pastor's, and it isn't your spouse's. The only one who can guarantee that you enjoy a strong faith is YOU. God has given you the tools you need to develop a strong faith—the kind of faith that moves mountains, shuts the mouths of lions, quenches the flames of fire, turns weakness to strength, and puts whole armies to flight (Hebrews 11:33-34).

How do you build that kind of faith? By hearing the Word of God again and again (Romans 10:17). Feeding your faith is the seed; hearing it again and again is how you water the seed and build faith. Just as with natural muscles, repetition is the key to building strong faith. To build your faith, try implementing some of these ideas into your daily routine:

- As you drive to and from work, stream a BVOV broadcast or other faith teaching in your car.
- Keep your MP3 player loaded with Bible-based podcasts. Then, when you work out, go on a walk, or take your lunch break, put in earbuds and feed your spirit.
- Turn on the VICTORY™ network [formerly Believers' Voice of Victory Network (BVOVN)] in your home as you go about your daily chores.

As you feed your spirit, remember that faith comes by hearing, but so does doubt. So, what are you listening to? What is the news telling you? What are your friends telling you? Guard the precious Word you've sown into your heart by refusing to consume anything contrary.

When you build your faith by hearing the Word on a daily basis, truth will come, faith will come and then—VICTORY will come.

Habit No. 3: Strong Christians Speak the Word

“Death and life are in the power of the tongue.”—Proverbs 18:21, NKJV

You've heard the saying, You are what you eat. But the Bible says, in essence, You are what you speak (Mark 11:23).

Strong Christians speak the Word and only the Word over their lives and the lives of those around them. They know it is often a matter of life and death. And, they don't intend to waste the power and authority Jesus provided for them.

To get to a place where you speak the Word over every situation, work on mastering the first two habits. By putting God's Word in your heart on a daily basis, speaking His Word will become your knee-jerk reaction to any situation, which means you will react with an automatic, predictable response—FAITH.

When a trial comes your way, don't become the proverbial bump on a log and let the devil have the final word—talk back! When the devil tempted Jesus, He answered back (Matthew 4:1-11). How did He answer? With the Word and the Word only. When He came across a fig tree that didn't produce, He didn't just accept it—He talked to it (Mark 11:12-14). God uses words to “call those things which be not as though they were” (Romans 4:17, NKJV), and we need to do the same.

No matter what you're faced with, speak healing, speak blessing, speak abundance, speak forgiveness, speak peace. Speak the Word again and again and again and again. Fire off Scripture like a machine gun. Confess God's Word in faith—it will change your life.

Habit No. 4: Strong Christians Control Their Thought Life

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.”—Joshua 1:8, NKJV

Is your thought life healthy or toxic? The mind, spirit and body are interconnected—your thoughts affect your words, which affect your health, prosperity, joy, peace and every other area of your life. So, it's worth taking the time to perfect!

To bring every thought into captivity (2 Corinthians 10:5), begin focusing on what you're thinking about. When your thoughts wander off to things like, you're not going to get healed; you're going to die; you'll never get promoted; how do you capture thoughts like these and cast them down? You resist them. You answer them. Never let your thoughts go unanswered. Instead, say, “I'm not taking that thought.”

You can become a master at thought domination by meditating on the Word of God. To meditate means you don't just hear it—you focus on it, contemplate it and give it serious attention. That's how you enlarge your capacity for faith, and that's why the most spiritual people you will ever meet are those who spend time meditating on the Word of God.

Habit No. 5: Strong Christians Anchor Their Heart Through Praise

“I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth.”—Psalm 34:1, NKJV

Did you know praise is a language? It’s a language of faith and a language of receiving. A strong Christian is fluent in praise. That’s why we’re called to bless the Lord at all times (Psalm 34:1) because no matter what is happening in our lives, we have countless reasons to thank Him for what He has done, what He is doing, and what we know He will do.

If praise is continually in your mouth, does that mean only when it’s good? No. That’s easy. Praise is an act of faith. If you believe you receive what you’ve asked—you’ll thank God for it—even if it hasn’t manifested. Praise says, “I know it’s coming.”

Strong Christians know there is a connection between praise and strength. They know a spirit of praise puts you in position and produces spiritual strength.

Habit No. 6: Strong Christians Pray in the Spirit

“[Build] yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.”—Jude 20, NKJV

A strong Christian knows the importance of keeping his spiritual battery charged. That’s where praying in other tongues comes in. When you pray in the spirit, you edify yourself, which means to improve or uplift. It strengthens your spirit and builds you up in your faith.

The powerful part of praying in other tongues is that it allows you to pray above what you know in the natural. It takes you into the spiritual realm and opens the door to revelation, wisdom, instruction and encouragement.

Habit No. 7: Strong Christians Get Rid of Baggage

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up.”—Hebrews 12:1

Streamlining. It’s a pretty important concept in aerodynamics. To streamline is to reduce resistance, creating a faster and smoother journey. It is studied by NASA engineers, airline pilots, shipbuilders and even athletes. The idea is to remove anything that would slow a craft, or person, down. The ultimate goal in streamlining is optimum performance and a victorious outcome.

That’s what we are called to do in our spiritual lives, too. When God told us to “strip off every weight that slows us down,” He was telling us to streamline our lives so we can enjoy optimum victory.

Imagine watching an Olympic runner trying to round the track and run a race wearing a suit of armor. You’d likely coach him through the TV, saying, “Throw off the armor! It’s slowing you down!”

That’s what God is saying to us.

What kind of baggage are you carrying today? Worry, anxiety, stress or fear? Maybe it’s a habit of sin you haven’t removed or unforgiveness that’s been festering for years. Whatever it is, make the decision to get rid of it today! It’s slowing you down. Take off anything that is hindering you, and run your race to victory!

When you put these 7 habits of strong Christians into practice on a daily basis, you will develop the kind of spirit that will cripple the enemy and ensure the kind of victory you’ve always dreamed of. This is the life Jesus died to give you. This is the life you were meant to live.

---

His Still Small Voice

---

By: Gloria Copeland Ministries

But the anointing which ye have received of [God] abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth. (1 John 2:27).

Have you ever noticed that you are sometimes aware of certain things even before you know what the Word says about them? That's because the Holy Spirit is inside you teaching you the truth. He speaks into your spirit. Then your spirit relays His promptings to your mind. Suddenly, you'll have a new thought. I need to forgive that person, you'll think, or I need to stop saying those unkind things.

As you become more aware of the Spirit of God in your everyday affairs, you'll be quicker to hear and obey those promptings. You'll actually get in the habit of allowing the Spirit of Truth to reveal the will of God to you. And, believe me, that's one habit God wants you to have!

One of the first things that the Spirit said to me when I began to listen to His promptings was, Spend more time in prayer. As I obeyed, I began to be impressed to spend at least one hour a day in prayer. After I'd begun to do that,

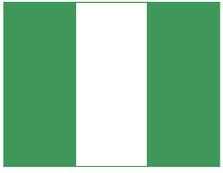

He revealed it to me in His Word (Matthew 26:40).

Since then, I have talked with people from all over the world who are hearing the same thing. Believers everywhere are hearing the Spirit of God direct them to more prayer.

God hasn't given the Holy Spirit to just a few special Christians. He's given Him to all of us. And if we'll just learn to be sensitive to His voice, He'll guide us into all truth!

Think about how different your life would be if you knew the truth of God about every situation! Doesn't that just make you want to listen to your spirit? Doesn't it make you want to be on the keen edge of what God is saying?

Start tuning your ear to His still, small voice within you. Honor Him and welcome His guidance into your everyday affairs. Listen for His promptings and be quick to obey. He's ready to speak to you. 1

Nigeria, let the Righteous Arise

Righteous Prayer Points of Action

"...Father, forgive us as a Church for going astray and pursuing after things that do not make for holiness and righteousness"

"...Father, please set the Church on the right path of righteousness, let your Spirit of conviction descend upon both the clergy and laity that your children might come back to you in repentance"

"...Father, let your supernatural power flow from your Church into our nation, bringing judgement upon those that stand against the advancement of your Kingdom"

"...Lord raise men and women in your church – Gideons, Jehu's, Elijah's and Elisha's. Men and woman who will bring forth your power to bear on our nation"

"According to your word O Lord, 'Your Church marches on and the gates of hell shall not prevail against your Church'"

Beloved, this is the time to gird up your loins as scripture says and fight the good fight of faith. Let everyone around you know where you stand. Be that beacon of light that others will see and recognize that God is about to do something great.

Surely as we repent and return to God as a church, the glory of the latter house will surely exceed that of the former!!

It's our moment for healing!!

"NEVERTHELESS, WE MADE PRAYER TO OUR GOD, AND BECAUSE OF THEM WE SET A WATCH AGAINST THEM DAY AND NIGHT". (NEHEMIAH 4:9).

The onslaught against the church of God is on the increase, it behooves on us as believers and God's battle axes to arise and intensify our prayers for the Church.

And we must not only stop at praying, like Nehemiah said, we must also set a watch against them day and night to identify and speak up against the craftiness of the enemy.

More importantly, we need to as individuals and collectively as a church turn to God in repentance. It is via a complete heartfelt repentance that we can beseech God and get the answers we desire that will in turn provoke God's mercy upon the church and by extension our nation.

SCRIPTURES TO PONDER

"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Philippians 1:6

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen." Hebrews 13: 20, 21

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified." Romans 8: 28-30

"... The Lord knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be forever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied." Psalms 37: 18, 19

"When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm." Psalms 105:13 - 15

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen." Hebrews 13: 20, 21

"When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm." Psalms 105:13 - 15

"Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:2

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified." Romans 8: 28-30

"That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ." Philippians 1:10

"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Philippians 1:6

"That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ." Philippians 1:10

"Looking unto Jesus Hebrews 12:2

"I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked unto him and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed." the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Psalms 34: 4, 5

"... The Lord knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be forever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied." Psalms 37: 18, 19

"I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked unto him and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed." Psalms 34: 4, 5

From The Publisher

All of us at Living for Christ keep remembering you in our prayers, God will definitely back up with His Holy Spirit as you consciously ensure you remain in right standing with Him.

We pray Proverbs 10:22 AMPC over you:
"The blessing of the Lord – it makes truly rich, and He adds no sorrow with it (neither does toiling increase it)"

Just in case you are wondering, we at Living for Christ are a soul-winning, WORD preaching team of believers, doing our very best to be like Jesus in Matthew 9:35.

We are currently revamping all our online platforms to enable easy access to the word of God, you will be able to read daily teachings on how to effectively live for Christ in our daily blog posts together with tips to live for Christ on our social media platforms – Facebook (Living for Christ) and Instagram (@livingforchristfoundation)

The hard copies of the Living for Christ magazine will still not be issued this quarter, please visit our website and download a copy and access other resources that has been made available.

Please take a moment to visit our website at www.livingforchristfoundation.org or scan the QR code to go directly. Visit our social media platforms and drop us note, not forgetting to help spread the gospel by sharing content that can be a blessing to your family, friends and people in your sphere of influence.

